

What Is It Like To Be a Building?

Choose a building you are familiar with. Imagine what it would be like to be that building. What was it like when you were first built? How have you changed over the years? What do you think about the people who have lived in/used/visited you over the years? What is the expression on your face? Write a brief story answering these questions and any others you might imagine.

Source: Pittsburgh Heritage Curriculum, Pittsburgh History & Landmarks Foundation, 1986