

Favorite Family Recipe

Writing prompt inspired by Linda Sue Park

In Linda Sue Park's picture book Bee-Bim Bop! we join a young Korean girl and her mom as they shop, chop, and prepare a delicious meal together.

Everyone has a favorite family recipe, something wonderful that is cooked up for special friends or special occasions.

What's your favorite family recipe? Does it have special meaning for your family?

For this prompt, you'll need a kitchen partner — your mom, dad, grandparent, or older sibling — to help you cook this delicious dish. Write up the recipe, the directions, and one descriptive sentence about the experience of cooking and sharing the food with others. Include a drawing if you like.
